Andrew Grose

Andrew Grose is a Canadian comedy veteran with some of the most impressive credentials in the industry. Recent credits include his own sitcom on The Comedy Network, "The Comedy Stampede Special" on The Comedy Network, a one hour Comedy Now Uncensored Special on The Comedy Network, a half-hour Comedy Now special on C.T.V., a half-hour Comics! special on C.B.C., two Just For Laughs Television Galas and appearances on CTV's The Vicki Gabereau Show, Open Mike With Mike Bullard, 3 episodes of Comedy At Club 54 and three Madly Off In All Directions. Andrew returned to Just For Laughs in the summer of 2000 and 2003 to once again host "Laughrodesiacs: The Relationship show" as well as performing on the "Big City Comics", "Bubbling With Laughter", "Comedy Night in Canada" and "Go West" stages. Andrew played "Turdmore Hacking" in the television series "Point Blank" in addition to serving as one of the show's writers. In May 2002 Andrew won a Leo Award for his outstanding writing on that show.

Steve Brinder

Steve Brinder is Canada's funniest teacher. For the last 20 years he has been a teacher by day and a stand-up comedian by night. His comedy, beloved by audiences across North America, is based on life experiences we all share; relationships, marriage, having children and, of course, life in the classroom as a substitute teacher for every subject at all grade levels. Steve has appeared on all the major TV networks as either a host, performer or reporter. He has toured and shared the stage with greats like Jim Carrey, Jay Leno and Howie Mandel. He appeared opposite Sean Hayes (Will & Grace's 'Jack') in the CBS-TV movie "The Martin and Lewis Story". Make sure you pay attention... everything Steve says on stage will be on the test at the end of the night!

Steve Patterson

Steve Patterson began full-time stand up comedy in 1996 after being fired from his full-time job advertising copywriter for shamelessly trying to inject humor into an ad for an amusement park. then Steve has gone on to perform well over 2,500 professional stand-up shows for thousands of fans. Though best known in Canada where he is a top headliner on the club circuit, Patterson is known in Ireland and the UK, and is a regular feature on The Comedy Network. Steve has also toured throughout the world and was the only Canadian comedian in 2004 to be invited to perform at Just For Laughs in Montreal, the Edinburgh Comedy Fest and the Halifax Comedy Fest. Described as "an arsenal of wit, sarcasm and song" Steve's above-the-belt style is enjoyable but difficult to categorize. Part Jon Stewart and part Robin Williams with hints of Wayne
