

The Windsor Report 2004

The Lambeth Commission on Communion

Edith Humphrey to speak in Ottawa on implications for the future of world Anglicanism

With its mandate to find a way forward to reconciliation and wider communion, the Windsor Report lays out ground rules for resolving the issues arising from last year's synodical actions in ECUSA and New Westminster while trying to prevent a fracture of the Worldwide Anglican Communion. It weighs the importance of worldwide church unity on the one hand, with concerns for the spiritual welfare of gays and lesbians on the other.

Dr. Edith Humphrey is Associate Professor of New Testament at Pittsburgh Theological Seminary, and was a member of the Primate's Theological Commission (ACC). In her address tonight she will explore the immediate issues facing Anglicanism following the publication of the Windsor Report, and help us understand the Primates' dilemma, as we continue to pray for their meeting February 20 – 26 in Northern Ireland.

When: 7:30 – 9:30 p.m. Friday, February 11, 2005

Where: St. George's Anglican Church,
152 Metcalfe Street, Ottawa

All are welcome.

Light refreshments and time for fellowship.
Organized by The Anglican Gathering of Ottawa
