DONALD (89) (INV) e-mx5 b.1741 + Ann McTavish
 Wed 26 Jan 1764; Does
 She b.1740; Gartbeg, Stratherrick; DO John, Capt of 78th Reg't, Commanded by Simon Fraser; her mom was Mary Fraser; & her bro was Simon McTavish (1750-1804) of NWCo, who made a small fortune as trader in the Mohawk Valley & who transferred his operations to Cda after Rev'n, & founded the NWCo 1779. [So he would have known Wm Johnston, the largest trader in NY state; who moved to Williamstown.]
 [St Andrews West, Glengarry, Ont; small cem across from church; Simon Fraser; Explorer b.1776-18?2 While in the employ of the NWCo he conducted important exploration & pioneer work principally in the area now known as BC which he helped to secure for the British. He led the 1st exploring expedition to descend the great river which bears his name, reaching the Gulf of Georgia on 2 July 1808. This monument was erected in 1921 by the HBC over the grave where he & his wife were buried.]
 He JP & tacksman or small tenant of Dalscoil (i.e. Clovendale 1mi nw of Dunmaglass) on Lovat estate.
 [This is the name Wm 31 gave his farm in Whitby, Ont;

this Wm + Cath McPherson was b.c1760 & from Aber;
likely bro or cousin.]

House was ½ way between Falls of Foyers (7wsw of Dunmaglass; on Loch Ness) & Mr McIntosh of Aberarder's, (1n of Dunmaglass);
which is around Errogie.

In his father-in-law's Will of 1773, he's called tacksman of Achnalodan (Achnaloddan), which he likely occupied prior to moving to Dalscoilt. Tacksman at Dalford x mentioned too.

He said to be Don/Roy - SO Wm + Mary McG; who was tacksman
(1715-1750) on Balnagaig (1s of Dunmaglass) or Balnagaick x (Balnaglack 3m w), which was the largest farm on the Dunmaglass estate. (see Farq 16 & 17) He was the principal tenant there in 1746 list in Inv Courier;

& 1st cousin to Capt Wm of Dunmaglass), SO Benj (who some say was also called Wm Ban, the next younger bro of Farq'r, the grd-dad of John/Lachlan, SO Farq'r 10.

Son Wm of NWCo presented this claim in 4 Mar'01 to Lord Lyon)

He d.17 Oct'03; bur Dunlichity in chief's family enclosure, age 63.

tacksman of Clovendale, Strath, Nairn (not on Gaz); Mr Don d.there, Scots Mag
She c1741-7 May'07; Dunlichety

(Clarence Kipling's Genealogies of the Red R Settlement PAC MG25 vol G62 p.680)

("McG* Lord of the NW" by Marjorie W Campbell 1962)

("Documents Relating to the NWCo" by W Stewart Wallace 1934)

If son Simon is cousin to John, the Chief; then Don must be bro to Farq'r (the 10th chief), John's father.

Son Wm declared Benj of Milntown was his grd-dad (file at Lord Lyon's according to Chris)

=Wm 1764; Clovendale, Dunlichty, Inv. Eldest of 12 kids.

To Cda 1783; fur trader & main partner of NWC.

Obtained many Cdn land grants; incl 1200 acres

9 Aug'02 in Inverness twp, Megantic Co; H grants.

Sold them later to Joseph Frobisher.

On a return to Inv in 1793 he was hailed as a hero.

Probably visited his chief (10 yr old John Lachlan)

& the Georgian trader Lachlan Lia (the guardian).

Wm studied route from L. Ontario to Georgian Bay & it is said this led to creation of Yonge St.

Probably was main charactor in decision to fight

Selkirk's Red R. settlement & the Massacre of 7 Oaks for which he & others were arrested & charged but got off; likely due to his son-in-law Judge Reid.

He was also a good friend of Bishop McDonell of Glengarry.

He d.16 Oct'25; St. John's Wood, Ldn, Eng; bur in the north vault beneath the nave of the Wren's St. James Piccadilly.

Unfortunately, this area was destroyed by bombs.

'51 Cath 80w Scot with son Malc below.

Brother to Arch SO Dunc 17 + Cath McLennan; & to John 172 ???

The petition of Alex McLeod of 18-6c Lochiel in 1837 describes the arduous journey of these families. UCLP C-2139 #21 doc 46 at PAC. In 1793 he decided to emigrate to Upper Cda, gave up his Scottish possessions & engaged 150 settlers to join him. They came from Glenelg, Glenmorrison Strathglass & Knoidart. He made 2 trips from Glenelg to Greenock to engage a ship. It sailed to Culreagh in Glenelg (next to Skye) 12 June 1793 where the settlers had assembled. They all embarked with their baggage & sailed on 15th.

About ½ way across the Atlantic a tremendous storm opened a dangerous leak & forced the ship to return to Greenock. After 2 wks the firm got the Brig "Argyl" ready on which they again embarked. But, 4 days later a heavy squall took away the upper masts. They returned to Samlash, Scot & 3 days later were able to depart. On 1 Nov they arrived off PEI in a heavy snow storm & very cold weather. The lateness of the year forced them to winter in Charlottetown. McLeod engaged a ship to carry them to Que (4 June) & then on to Montreal. From there they went to River Aux Raisen, & then overland to what is now Lochiel. McLeod asked for an extra 1000 acres as other "leaders" had; (McDonells etc) but, was denied. (He was talking then to a new generation & he likely wasn't a member of the 'elite')

Two of his wits were; Arch McG of 27-7c (his mk) & Malc McG of 25-7c Lochiel (see Hugh 30; + Nelly Chisholm). From p.58 of "The McLeods of Glengarry", OPL. Five McG's petitioned for Lancaster twp land 25 June 1794 & received it 11 Aug or 8 Oct 1794 (now Lochiel); Arch 17-15c; Don 20-15c; Don 32-15c; Dunc 28-16c & Malc 16-15c. The Don of 32-15c (32-6c L.) seems to have moved away. The Arch of 17-6c likely came from Kenyon.

A memorial stone shows 1794 McG's as Don, Arch, Don/B & John/R.

Sept 14 paper says "It becomes our duty to record the d. of Mr Murdoch McG*, bro of E. McG*, Esq, Mayor of this city, which took place at his bro's residence, Wellington St, on 5th. The dec'd has been well known in this part of Cda for the last 38/40 yrs. As the active & enterprising partner & representative of the firm Day & McG*, Merchts & Fur Traders, he was well known of the early settlers on the Ottawa & its tributaries.

A generation has well nigh passed away since the firm commenced business at the DesChenes Rapids, a few miles above this city; but some there are still amongst us, who remember that bold & successful competition with the HBC & others, in the fur trade; then a very large trade in the Ottawa Country. Amongst the Indians he was exceedingly popular, & to this day they speak of him with great respect. He is spoken of in a book written by McLean (who more than a ¼ century ago, had charge of the Chats House & other HBC stns on the Ottawa) (John McLean "Notes of 25 yrs Service in the HB Territory" 1849) in very high terms, though at the time they were in sharp opposition in business. He was kind & obliging to all, & though a man of remarkable energy of character, he had scarce an enemy. he was b. in Lochiel twp & d. age 58.

His fur trading post was at Deschenes Rapids; on e ½ 15-1; just e of Deschenes vill & the Vanier Rd. Situated on the old Algonquin Indian portage, it was named after their word for oak, which were plentiful there then. There remains only the ruined sluice by the bike path. Not mentioned in Ernest Voorhis "Historic Forts & Trading Posts" 1930; OPL. Area Deeds lost in 1900 fire.

Fortunately a land dispute (letter in Hull Archives re lot 15-1 re McConnell) gives info; Murdoch deponed (& signed) a statement 1 June '57; of Ott, formerly a resident of Hull twp; that in 1821 he was a clerk for Ithamer Hawley Day in Montreal. In 1821 Murdoch left Montreal with goods to trade with Indians. He applied to Wm McConnell Sr for the above location. In 1822 he entered a partnership with Day under the firm of "Day & McG Co" which continued until 1832.

This store captured trade of people who travelled by that route. Competed with Wrights who owned much of area & had other stores. ("The Alymer Rd" by Dianne Albred, 1994 p.20; 1-819-455-2240 ✓) (Aylmer Hist Soc twt 10-3; 1-819-684-6809 ✓) E Ermatingue's diary, 14 July'29; says introduced to Mr McG* (NCC papers; including 20-1-2 box 1525; re Day & McG* co.) In 1822, 1824 & 1826 their co. hired a large no of voyageurs to go into the woods as their reps; their contracts are on file.

Murdoch continued trading into the 1840's, without Day (Conroy papers Hull Archives)

(Cdn Biographical Dict 11p.261) Ithamar lived on the Aylmer Rd at the Deschenes Rd crossing. Was close friends of Capt LeBreton. His 1841 election expense broke his father, who then went to the NW after his wife d.; river named after him out W. ("The Pioneers of the Upper Ott" by Anson/A Gard, OPL)

Was great fur trader well known in valley in early days. (Ott paper). Day & McG* carried on a ruthless competition with the HBC, with outposts at L. Nipissing, Mattawa, up the Lieve R at Lac des Sables & at R. Desert. Heavy losses in 1832 forced partnership to dissolve with McConnell bro's taking over the Deschenes post. It seems his bro Ed was in fur trade in 1830's & both continued in the trade until at least 1842. One contemporary in 1839 said McG* is continually on the move, with an old horse & a load of 1 thing or another. Funeral notice (Citizen 25 Nov); Edward McGillivray; died age 70 at 20 Vitoria St.
Funeral at his home on Wednesday 26th.
Obituary; Ottawa Citizen 25 Nov 1885
"The Late Edward McGillivray"
"Death has claimed another of the early pioneers of the city of Ottawa, in the person of Edward McGillivray who departed this life yesterday morning at his residence in the city, at the age of seventy years.
Mr McGillivray came to Bytown at a very early period of its history, and opened a general store on Wellington street, where for a number of years he carried on a thriving mercantile business, one successful branch of which was a large trade in furs with the Indians, who were quite numerous in this neighbourhood at that time. In addition, to dry goods and groceries, he shortly afterwards kept lumbermen's supplies in large quantities, and had business connections with some of the largest lumbering establishments on the Ottawa.
The deceased was a member of the City Council, as alderman, in the years 1885, 1886 (sic) and 1857, and was elected Mayor of Ottawa by the Council, according to the Municipal Act of that time, for the years 1858 and 1859. In his capacity as alderman and mayor he was a strenuous advocate of public improvements, and did much towards the inception and carrying out of many of the much required improvements which were then made in various parts of the city. During his tenure of office as alderman, he was chairman of the Finance Committee, to the duties of which onerous position he gave much attention. For many of the more extensive schemes of public improvements, railway and otherwise, the citizens of Ottawa are largely indebted for the success of such undertakings to the enterprising and spirited aid which he lent them.

As his name implies, the deceased was of scotch parentage; a consistent Conservative in politics, his course was marked by energetic and active support of the party to which he belonged and steadfastly adhered to during the whole course of his career. He was a member of St Andrew's Presbyterian Church, the congregation of which will lose by his death one of its very ablest members. (But, no records of him there ?)

From the earliest rise of the temperance movement here, Mr McGillivray identified himself with it, and by his advocacy and example became a recognized and powerful auxiliary of the principles of total abstinence, more particularly during the earlier stages of the movement, when the drinking customs of society constituted a much more prominent feature in social circles than they do at present.

The deceased leaves a wife and four daughters to lament his loss. No man in the Ottawa Valley was better known, and no one has died for many years in this community whose fate has excited more sympathy. In the sad hour of their bereavement, those whom he has left behind will not be forgotten in the sympathetic recollection of a very large circle of friends & acquaintances."

Funeral was written up 27 Nov; "One of the most largely attended funerals seen in this city for some time was that of the late Edward McG* which took place from the family residence yesterday afternoon. Nearly all the prominent citizens of Ottawa were present to pay the last tribute of respect to the (man) who in his lifetime had done much to advance its prosperity & had always been an active promotor of any scheme brought forward calculated to promote the general good. The impressive service for the dead having been conducted at the house of Rev Dr Moore, the sad procession started for Beachwood cemetary. The St Andrews Society & the City Sons of Temperance proceeded the hearse on foot. After the hearse & the chief mourners carriage came the pallbearers (see below). Then came Mayor McDougal & the City Council in a body & a vast concourse of general mourners followed.

All along the route crowds of sympathizing spectators had gathered to see the cortage pass."

The pallbearers were; (Ott 1884 Dir)
